Dispute Resolution Services

Lodders is an established and thriving law firm that is built on providing outstanding legal advice to individuals and privately owned businesses. Based in Stratford upon Avon and with offices in Henley in Arden and Cheltenham, we combine thoughtful, intelligent advice with a highly personal service.

It is an unavoidable fact of life that disputes will sometimes occur in business or personal matters.

When these disputes do occur, you need to know that you have a team of specialists on your side. Lodders' dispute resolution experts work tirelessly on behalf of our clients, bringing problems to a speedy and effective resolution.

Often however there is no need for us to resort to court action to overcome differences and successful outcomes can often be achieved through alternative dispute resolution – also known as ADR. This includes arbitration, mediation and negotiation and can often achieve the same results, in less time and at a lower cost.

Our specialist team will help you to understand all your options and then agree with you the best strategy to help you achieve your desired goal, keeping front of mind the need to protect your reputation and commercial relationships.

With two partners, one consultant, and three solicitors, the Dispute Resolution team provides an extensive service across the full range of personal and business disputes, at competitive rates.

If court proceedings are necessary, the Dispute Resolution team is able to draw on its substantial expertise and experience with high court, county court and tribunal matters.
