

LODDERS

Essential legal clarity,
with human understanding

The background features a complex pattern of wavy, concentric lines in shades of grey and white. A thick, vibrant pink line starts from the left edge, winds through the pattern, and then extends diagonally across the top right of the page, ending near the text.

Find yourself a good solicitor,
that's what you hear people say.
Someone who can cut through the detail and tell you what you really need to know, to get the situation resolved...the deal done.

We're a firm that's full of excellent solicitors. People who know the law, who are just as savvy about real world complications.

HELLO LODDERS

A team with lawyers who are strong on the technicalities, but just as good at delivering creative solutions.

People who work hard together to find practical compromises for our clients, but never forget there are emotions involved – whether we're supporting our clients with their business or in life.

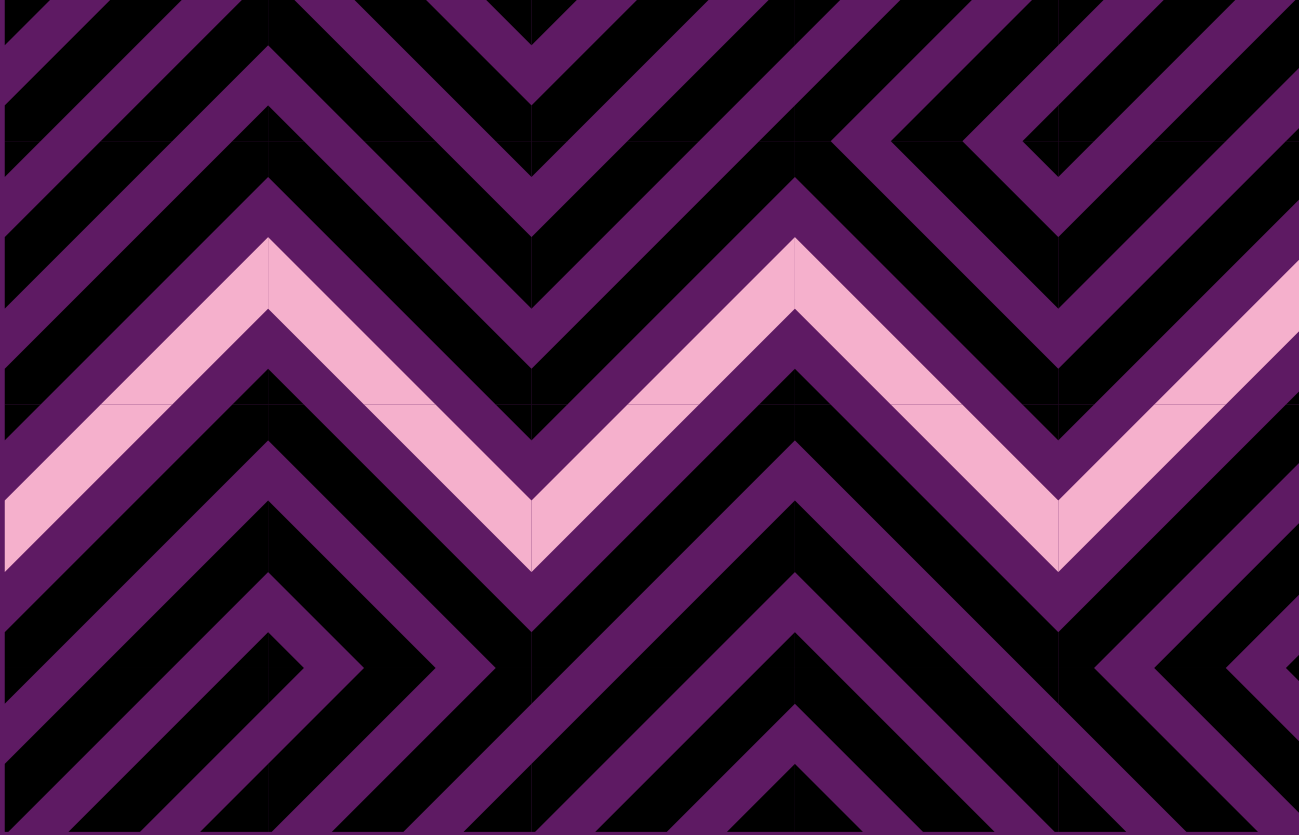

What we do

We help clients to grow businesses, sell a family one, resolve disputes, complete their deal on land or property, and address changes in personal or family life.

We're a team of real world, specialist solicitors.

Our commitment to clients

Close engagement and exactly the right combination of expertise, at the right time

Making the legal process easier – a positive experience
as far as possible

Our legal team is supported by experts in HR, operations, technology, finance and communications, who are just as dedicated to providing a seamless, informed, friendly and high quality service.

Our purpose

Providing the legal clarity and human understanding our clients need to move forward and achieve their goals

Our vision

To sit among the most recommended legal
firms in the UK

Recommended because of our talented and approachable specialists, advanced ways of working and our ability to guide clients through complexity to good outcomes.

You are a vital part of Lodders and of our exciting future

We protect families
and their wealth from generation to generation

We steer businesses
through complex sales
and acquisitions

We help property developers navigate the challenges from land acquisition to plot sales

We provide clarity
across the property
sector on evolving biodiversity laws

We help landowners
diversify into
new opportunities

We guide people and businesses through
disputes for a settled
future

We streamline
the journey to buying your next property

We help families turn corners
for greater peace of mind

We help businesses and individuals navigate
the complexities of employment law

This is what we value at Lodders

Human connection

1

We're a people business and enjoy building strong relationships with everyone we work with, inside and outside of our firm. By being human and empathetic, on top of being professional and providing trustworthy, informed advice.

Making the most of opportunities

We're a progressive firm in everything we do. One that moves with the times and with our clients, responding to changing needs and seizing opportunities to provide the highest quality legal service and environment for our team.

2

3

Sharing what we know

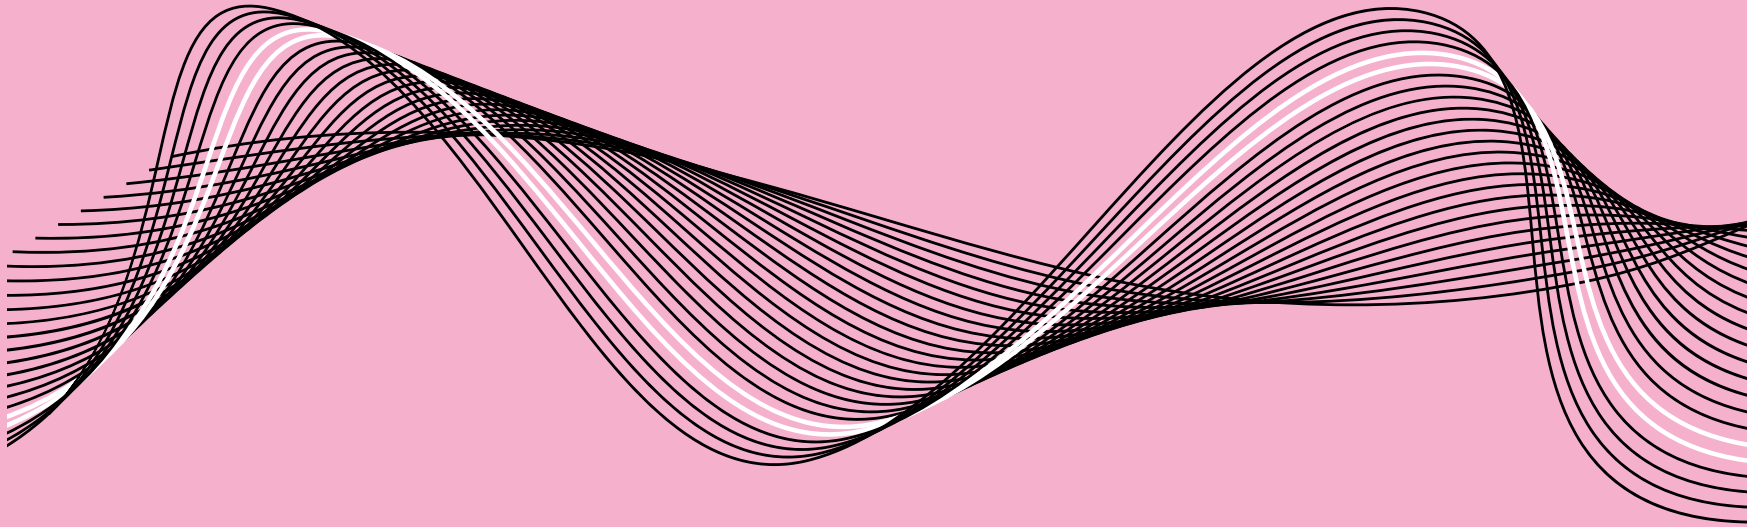

We share our expertise and generously provide insights – to our clients, partners and to each other – enabling easy collaboration between everyone, more informed decision-making and clarity about achievable outcomes.

4

Collective achievement

We work together – bringing the right specialists in at the right time – to help our clients and colleagues achieve the outcomes they need. Use problem-solving, mediation, coaching, creativity and determination, to ensure people can move forward in business, their career and in life.

We are specialist
solicitors

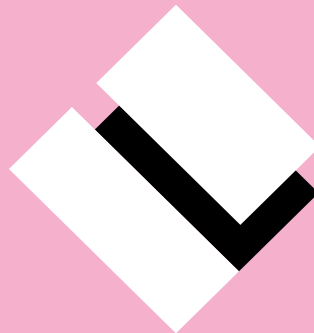

For business, land,
property and life

We've been doing
what we're great
at for over 230 years.

Here's to 230 more...

Providing essential
legal clarity, with human understanding

Lodders Solicitors LLP
Stratford upon Avon / Cheltenham / Birmingham / Henley in Arden

lodders.co.uk